Redirect the World Trade Organization Agenda, Rules and Guidelines

ACGA recommends that the new administration examine, report on and propose changes to the negative economic impact of the World Trade Organization agenda, rules and guidelines on the U.S. agricultural, industrial, manufacturing and service sectors to include the resulting outsourcing of U.S. factories, production and employment. This examination should include U.S. changes in the tax code so as to discourage off-shoring, outsourcing and relocation of U.S. business to foreign countries and propose tax code modifications and other incentives to “onshore” businesses back to the U.S.
